

On the northeast of Sicily in the city of Milazzo passed a wine festival. The best wines presented on court to the international jury more than fifteen producers of winemaking zones of Mamertino DOC, Faro DOC and Malvasia Lipari DOC.

This project took place with support of department of agricultural and food resources of Sicily, the president of "Strada del Vino" association of signor Ruggiero Vasari, representation of the Ministry of Agriculture of the region Messina, commercial and industrial chamber of the city of Messina, the state adviser of the province Messina Maria Rosaria Cuzumano.

The purpose of carrying out a meeting between the Sicilian producers both foreign journalists and importers was to show difference of production of wine and development of export in such the states, as Brasil, Great Britain, Russia and Sweden, where consumption of good wine continuously grows and as to fix the positions in the traditional international markets.

Within three days to group of journalists of Russia, Great Britain and Sweden, and also from Brasil more than eighty wines were presented to importers on tasting: from red dry to the white dessert. It was very difficult to choose best of these unique wines. And still we managed to allocate the most qualitative wine, DOC from signor Vasari and Faro DOC OBLI from signori of Fauci appeared them Mamertino.

Step by step the reputation of winemaking zones of Mamertino, Faro and Malvasia Lipari will revive. As these wines open for us unique spirit of the Sicilian earth.
